

Using Skills

The map on page 37 shows the important elements of the colonial economy and where they were located. Study the map. Look carefully at the symbols used to represent different crops, products, and businesses.

A. Use the information from the map to answer the following questions. Print the letter of the best answer in the space provided.

1. _____ Most fishing areas in the colonies were located near
  - A. New Jersey.
  - B. the South.
  - C. New England.
  - D. Virginia.

2. _____ Manufacturing of iron took place mostly in
  - A. Virginia.
  - B. Vermont.
  - C. South Carolina and Georgia.
  - D. New Jersey and New England.

3. _____ The trading of furs and skins was located in all of the following areas except
  - A. the South.
  - B. New England.
  - C. Pennsylvania
  - D. Delaware.

4. _____ Sources of lumber and naval stores were located
  - A. mostly in the Carolinas.
  - B. in Virginia.
  - C. in Delaware and Maryland.
  - D. in many areas of the colonies.

5. _____ Since slave labor was most often used for raising tobacco and rice, most slaves lived in
  - A. the South.
  - B. New England.
  - C. the Middle Colonies.
  - D. the Western Frontier.

6. _____ Most shipbuilding in the colonies was located in
  - A. the Carolinas.
  - B. New England.
  - C. Philadelphia.
  - D. Virginia.

7. _____ Most trading centers in the colonies were located
  - A. in New England.
  - B. around Albany.
  - C. on or near inland rivers.
  - D. on or near the Atlantic Ocean.

8. According to the map information, it would probably be proper to say that
- the economies of New England, the Middle Colonies, and the Southern Colonies were quite different.
  - industry was more important to the Southern Colonies than to any other region.
  - the economies of New England, the Middle Colonies, and the Southern Colonies were quite similar.
  - agriculture was more important to the New England Colonies than any other region.

